Specialized Police Support Policy

Purpose:

To provide an overview of the specialized supports available to the EPS.

Statement of Principle:

The EPS is mandated to command specialized units to respond to emergencies, unusual occurrences, and high-risk incidents to safeguard the security and safety of the public and the police and to limit damage to property.

Policy Statement:

- A. The EPS deploys sufficient coordinated and specialized police resources and personnel to proactively prepare for and respond to emergency situations, unusual occurrences, and high-risk incidents.
- B. The EPS uses the Incident Command System (ICS) when a situation requires an organized and coordinated response.
